

St. Joseph's Children's Home Employment Opportunities

As of June 8, 2017

Please access the Employment Application section of the website for application instructions. You may also contact the HR Department to inquire about positions and application procedures or status.
We appreciate your interest in employment with St. Joseph's Children's Home.

* * * *

PSYCHOLOGIST

Responsibilities include psychological screening and evaluation, clinical caseload, program evaluation and outcome measurement. Requires PhD or PsyD, preferably from an A.P.A. Accredited program. Wyoming licensure required.

Excellent benefit package; pay commensurate with experience.

* * * *

ELEMENTARY TEACHER

Responsibilities: Responsible for teaching duties within the Elementary classroom to include ability to design and monitor courses of study based upon individual resident's ability and educational goals established in treatment plans; maintains and monitors academic and behavioral progress of students in each class period; provides appropriate feedback on the academic and behavioral progress of each student; supervises students during class and outside classroom when appropriate; and cooperates with other members of St. Joseph's various treatment teams to design and adjust treatment programs for residents..

Requirements: Minimum of 21 years of age; ability to lift 50 pounds; and ability to obtain and maintain intermediate certification in the Mandt System ® of nonphysical and physical intervention with aggressive youth; Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and current Wyoming Teaching Certification, prefer additional endorsement in Special Education.

Full time

* * * *