St. Joseph's Children's Home is offering Outpatient Behavioral Health Services via Telehealth

In an effort to meet the current needs of our Wyoming community, St. Joseph's Children's Home is now offering outpatient mental health services for youth ages 6-18 through telehealth. Services that we can provide include:

- Psychiatric Assessments and Treatments including Evaluations and Medication Management
- Individual Therapy
- Family Therapy

Our professional staff are ready to serve and consists of:

- Dr. J. Douglas Muir, Board Certified Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist
- Dr. Mary Moreno, Board Certified Psychiatrist and
- 9 Licensed Master Degree Professional Counselors and Social Workers.

During this COVID-19 pandemic, services will only be provided through live two-way interactive video communication, commonly referred to as "telehealth." Virtual connections are secure and HIPPA compliant. Clients can use a smartphone, tablet or computer without leaving their home.

St. Joseph's Children's Home is an approved Wyoming Medicaid provider and a contracted provider with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Wyoming. While we are not a contract provider with other carriers, we have worked with other insurance companies including: United Healthcare, TriWest, Cigna and Aetna. We are happy to file claims on your behalf to your insurance carrier. St. Joseph's Children's Home will provide service regardless of a client's ability to pay. If you do not have health insurance, a sliding fee scale is available.

Please call St. Joseph's Children's Home at (307) 532-4197 if you are interested in accessing services through our telehealth program. Intake materials can be found on our website at www.stjoseph-wy.org under the Outpatient Services.
